

Dear Campers and their families,

Church camp is coming up quickly and I have some good news. Last year we had a meeting and looked at the camp budget and realized that with costs going up so quickly that we were going to have to raise our camp registration fees. That doesn't sound like good news you say? Well I haven't gotten to it yet--the good news is that the district has released some funds for the use of our camp and this will cause the fees to stay the same. That is, $85 per camper and $20 for the canoe float. This is an incredible bargain when you consider all you get for your money--all the food you can eat and it's good too; sports, bible study and crafts, and memories that last a lifetime. And all this under the tuition of loving and somewhat uncool adults. Oh yeah, and don't forget that we have the prettiest swimmin' hole in the country.

The other good news is that we plan to have a little contest this year. We are having a competition to see which camper can bring the most new campers with him/her this year. When your friend sends in their registration form, make sure he/she fills in your name as the responsible party and I will keep a tally and the camper who rounds up the most new recruits will get to go to camp for free this year! Don't miss this opportunity to have more fun and go to camp for free.

If you are an adult and you think you might be interested in becoming a counselor, please contact me and let me know of your interest and I'll do my best to talk you into it--even we adults have a lot of fun at camp. We hope to see all of you during the week of July 29-August 4.
